

CINÉMATHÈQUE QUÉBÉCOISE

MONTRÉAL, QUÉBEC, CANADA

GENERAL INFORMATION

Client	Cinémathèque Québécoise
Capacity	84 seats (Fernand- Séguin projection room) 156 seats (Claude-Jutra projection room)
Area	7,900 m ²
Cost	C$ 10 M (C$ 7.3M construction and C$ 2.7M audiovisual equipment)
Inauguration	1997

The Cinémathèque québécoise is devoted to the conservation and dissemination of film and television archives. In fact, it is Canada's largest documentation and reference centre for cinema and television.

In addition to two exhibition rooms and two projection rooms, this modern facility includes a fully equipped media library with all the technology needed to allow the general public to access the collections over the Internet.

